A Call to Humble Ourselves Before God
"It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God." — Hebrews 10:31

Jonathan Edwards 'words in his famous sermon still resonate today, warning us about the gravity of standing before a holy and just God. In a modern context, we recognize that America and New England have drifted far from the principles of Christian faith and reverence that once formed the foundation of our society. Our culture often places its trust in wealth, influence, and human desires, ignoring the deep spiritual need for God's presence and his last Judgment.

Prayer is a chance for us to humble ourselves, recognizing that without God, our efforts are empty. Let us acknowledge the seriousness of our calling and come together with open hearts, asking God to revive this land and fill it once again with His Spirit. Today, we walk not only in hope but in awe of the One who holds all power. As we step forward, let us prepare our hearts for revival, praying for God's Spirit to move mightily in our lives, in our communities, and throughout America.

On November 16, 2024, The Golden Lampstand Ministry took a prayer walk on our land at 401 King Street. We walked and prayed as the Holy Spirit moved us along the path.

The following scriptures were a guide as we walk and pray, asking God to bring about transformation in our hearts and our nation. Each passage has a scripture as the guide and a response short prayer for reflection and unity in prayer. Today, let us use this guide to pray together again.

2 Chronicles 7:14
"If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then I will hear from heaven, and I will forgive their sin and will heal their land."
Prayer Response: Lord, we repent on behalf of ourselves and our nation, asking for Your forgiveness. We humble ourselves, turn from all evil, and seek Your face with sincere hearts. Hear our prayer from heaven and heal our land, bringing revival to us once again.

Psalm 85:6
"Will you not revive us again, that your people may rejoice in you?"
Prayer Response: God of revival, we ask You to awaken our spirits again, restoring our passion and joy in You. Let us be stirred from complacency, so that our lives overflow with Your joy and glory.

Isaiah 6:8
"Then I heard the voice of the Lord saying, 'Whom shall I send? And who will go for us?' And I said, 'Here am I. Send me!'"
Prayer Response: Lord, here we are, willing to be sent by You. Prepare our hearts to serve faithfully in Your mission. Wherever You lead us, may we be messengers of Your love and truth.

Matthew 9:37-38
"Then he said to his disciples, 'The harvest is plentiful but the workers are few. Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, to send out workers into his harvest field.'"
Prayer Response: Lord, the harvest is ripe, but the workers are few. We pray that You would send more workers into the plentiful harvest. May we ourselves be ready to answer Your call, becoming faithful laborers to bring the gospel to every corner of need.

John 15:5
"I am the vine; you are the branches. If you remain in me and I in you, you will bear much fruit; apart from me you can do nothing."
Prayer Response: Lord Jesus, You are the vine, and we are the branches. Help us to remain in You, never straying from Your presence. Let our lives bear abundant fruit, living out Your grace and love, bringing glory to Your name.

Ephesians 6:10-11
"Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil’s schemes."
Prayer Response: Almighty God, grant us strength to put on the full armor You provide, standing firm against the enemy’s schemes. May we stand steadfast in faith, truth, and righteousness, unafraid of any spiritual attacks.

1 Peter 2:9
"But you are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, God’s special possession, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light."
Prayer Response: Lord, thank You for choosing us as Your people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation. Help us to be lights in the darkness, living out Your beauty and leading more people into Your marvelous light.
